

The Honey Hive Project (DAO)

A global call to action. Three months. One DAO. One hive.

Dear future pollinator,

The hive is collapsing. The climate is screaming. Creators are exhausted and underpaid. The old system promised gold and delivered greenwash.

The Honey Hive Project is our refusal — and our reorganization. A DAO (decentralized autonomous organization) of artists, technologists, and environmental stewards, governed on-chain, mobilized this summer into a single coordinated swarm through the WE3 Summer 2026 campaign.

The model: exponential relationship resource brokering, subscription-grade service providers, global agents of change activated through holistic strategic systems. On-chain treasury. Contribution-weighted voting. NFT-gated membership.

AuRoom (Aii) is a woman-led remote incubator founded in 2019 and operating since 2021. We are building a global NFT alliance for the environment — where art meets technology in service of life.

This letter is an invitation. We don't need permission to build the future. We are looking for pollinators, contributors, and co-owners ready to co-build the golden era.

Four Sacred Dimensions of the DAO

Resource Networks — Interconnected webs of infinite opportunity, brokered peer-to-peer.

Strategic Systems — Multi-dimensional consciousness pooling, governed on-chain.

Global Agents — Worldwide transformation catalysts, activated as digital pollinators.

Sacred Technology — Ancient wisdom + ethical tech. Metaverse-ready commerce.
